AMEND House Bill No. 1455, Page 8, Section 620.1910, Line 228, after all of said line insert the following: "Section 1. 1. This section shall be known as the Taxpayer Tax Credit Protection Act. 2. To qualify for any tax credit or benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund, an applicant must disclose to the Department of Economic Development the number of persons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of the previous three years. 3. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	HOUSE	AMENDMENT NO
following: "Section 1. 1. This section shall be known as the Taxpayer Tax Credit Protection Act. 2. To qualify for any tax credit or benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund, an applicant must disclose to the Department of Economic Development the number of persons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of the previous three years. 3. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references		Offered By
 To qualify for any tax credit or benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund, an applicant must disclose to the Department of Economic Development the number of persons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of the previous three years. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 	AMEND House Bill No. 1455,	, Page 8, Section 620.1910, Line 228, after all of said line insert the
Missouri Job Development Fund, an applicant must disclose to the Department of Economic Development the number of persons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of the previous three years. 3. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	following: " Section 1. 1. This	section shall be known as the Taxpayer Tax Credit Protection Act.
Development the number of persons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of the previous three years. 3. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	2. To qualify for any tax credit	t or benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit ander the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	Missouri Job Development Fu	nd, an applicant must disclose to the Department of Economic
3. Beginning August 1, 2012, any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit under the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	Development the number of pe	ersons the applicant employed in the state of Missouri for each of ander the Quality Jobs Act, Manufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	he previous three years. have offset against its tax credits or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	3. Beginning August 1, 2012,	any person or entity receiving job-creation tax credits or any benefit would have withheld for employees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during the three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	under the Quality Jobs Act, Ma	anufacturing Jobs Act, or Missouri Job Development Fund shall he three years prior to the entity or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit. 4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	nave offset against its tax credi	its or benefits the amount of withholding tax the entity or person
4. Any taxpayer of the state of Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	would have withheld for emplo	oyees whose jobs were eliminated in the state of Missouri during
of Economic Development and an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	he three years prior to the enti	ty or person's receipt of the tax credit or benefit.
of this section."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	4. Any taxpayer of the state of	f Missouri shall have standing to bring suit against the Department
Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	of Economic Development and	d an entity receiving tax credits or benefits in excess of or violation of this section."; and
	Further amend said bill by ame	ending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
	•
Action Taken Date 1	Action Taken	Date 1